K. P.'S ARE COMING

BIG MEETING IN MARYVILLE THURSDAY, APRIL 23.

MANY ARE EXPECTED

Knights of Pythias Will Be Entertained by Maryville and Stanberry Lodges—A Special Train.

An entertainment will be given the Knights of Pythias lodges of the First District association, in Maryville, Thursday, April 23, by Maryville lodge No. 84 and Stanberry lodge No. 56. Three hundred delegates are expected to attend.

The business meeting will be held in the W. O. W. hall and the banquet in the parlors of the Christian church. Grand Chancellor Joseph Crites of Nevada, Mo., will give an address at the Christian church in the afternoon. Charles Hyslop will be toastmaster at the banquet.

The entertainment committee are E. L. Andrews, P. Mergen and W. H. Crawford. A special train will run from St. Joseph to Maryville for the delegates.

The following named lodges will have representatives present: Albany No. 112, Grant City No. 120, King City No. 158, Maitland No. 183, Bolckow No. 196, Mahaska No. 204, Rock Port No. 205, Fairfax No. 208, Allendale No. 234, Grand River No. 251, Cainesville No. 272, New Hampton No. 285, Eagle No. 291, Tarkio No. 292, Platte City No. 296, Watson No. 301, Weston No. 323, Rochester No. 334, Gilman City No. 339, Ridgeway No. 345, Maryville No. 84, Darlington No. 161, Stanberry No. 56.

Many delegates from lodges in towns near St. Joseph will join the St. Joseph delegation and it is probable that the special train will carry 300 knights to the meeting. The entertaining lodges are making elaborate preparations to entertain the visitors. Grand Chancellor Joseph Crites will be one of the principal speakers, and many other grand lodge officers are expected to be present.

The St. Joseph knights will wear pennants bearing the words "St. Joseph K. of P.," and will boost for their home town. The uniform ranks and possibly members of the D. O. O. K. will join the subordinate lodges on this trip.

A. E. Martin, representative of the Burlington road, will have charge of the special train and will put forth every effort to make the trip as enjoyable as possible.

CENTRAL HIGH EXPECTS HONORS.

Twelve Representatives to Be Chosen Saturday—Rice the Most Dependable Man Again This Season.

The Central high school of St. Joseph expects to be better represented at the track meet this year than ever. Reports are that the hurdle men are showing better form than had been expected of them, notwithstanding the fact that Rice would be their most formidable man with the hurdles.

Nineteen men have been selected for the meet and from this number twelve men will be chosen next Saturday to enter the meet.

In the dashes Martin and Castle will be relied upon principally to carry the blue and white to victory. Martin has proven to be a winner in the 100-yard dash event. Last Saturday he clipped off the distance in seconds. Castle is expected to be a close second with Martin in this event.

The weight men are not expected to put up as strong competition as in former events. Johnson and Rohloff will be the main competitors with the discus. Johnson has been ruling the discus a distance around 100 feet, while Rohloff, instead of showing improvement over his last year's form, is only hurling the discus a distance closer to 95 than 100 feet, which was the mark that he stuck to last year.

The blue and white expect to carry off several points in the shotput, however. Stone, Rohloff and several possibilities, as yet dark horses, according to Coach Moyer, will be given an opportunity to show their ability, and expect to carry off the honors.

Experienced Coach for Company F.

Lieutenant Loren DeMotte has secured an experienced coach for Company F's new base ball team, and the team will be ready for a work-out soon. The coach is from Missouri state university football team.

Went to Kansas City.

Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Seleeman went to Kansas City Wednesday morning, where Mr. Selecman is taking special treatment.

SHOT PROVES FATAL.

Ralph Marshall, Tarkio Youth, Accidentally Wounded April 4, Succumbs at Ensworth.

Ralph Marshall, 19-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. William Marshall of Tarkio, Mo., who accidentally shot himself April 4 at his home, died at 2 o'clock Tuesday morning at Ensworth hospital.

The youth was removing cartridges from a revolver when a ball was discharged and entered his left chest, perforating the stomach. The boy was taken to St. Joseph in a special Burlington train the day after the accident and taken to Ensworth hospital. Several days later the bullet was removed and the patient rallied well. But the lad was in a weak physical condition as a result of an attack of appendicitis three weeks ago, which returned yesterday and contributed to his death.

Young Marshall was a nephew of W. F. Rankin, the farmer-banker of Tarkio. His parents were with him when he died, and accompanied the body to Tarkio, where the funeral will be conducted.

The news of Ralph Marshall's death is received by Maryville friends with deep regret. While a student at the Normal a year or so ago he made his home with Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Sanders, and was a favorite with many of our young people and the Normal student body. His mother is a niece of Mrs. G. W. Turner of this city.

176 DOZEN OF EGGS.

Taken Last Sunday at the Harmony Church, East of Maryville.

The Missouri hen has been found to do a great many things in the way of meeting expenses of various kinds, but it has remained for the Harmony church, eleven miles northeast of Maryville, of which the Rev. C. R. Green is pastor, to put upon her the responsibility of paying the minister's salary and all the expenses of the church and never miss the money.

The project followed Sunday's egg collection at the Harmony church, when the worshipers brought the Saturday product of their hens to church instead of the usual dimes and quarters. One hundred and sixty-eight dozen eggs went into the contribution boxes, or $25 worth, figuring the value at 16 cents a dozen, the present price here.

This makes the value of the eggs of the community $9,000 a year, and there is a move on foot to market these eggs, guaranteed, as a community, claiming the 3 to 5 cents a dozen extra that is paid for such eggs as compared with the uncertainties of the ordinary product. The difference will pay the preacher, keep the church in repair, buy special music and coal, and keep the church's light plant running. The women of the community have agreed to undertake the plan, and they will organize into an egg shipping company for that purpose.

The largest number of eggs brought to the Easter collection was contributed by John Dawson, whose hens laid 176 eggs Saturday.

KEEP OFF THE GRASS.

Signs Are Up in the Lawn Around the Court House Square—Are to Be Strictly Enforced.

Judge John Thornhill ordered signs put up around the court house square this morning bearing the inscription "Keep Off the Grass," and this rule is to be strictly enforced.

There has been a great deal of money spent in improving the lawn and beautifying its appearance, and they wish to keep it that way.

Men are busy today in grading the terrace around the square and planting the sod, and when completed it will present a very attractive appearance.

It would be useless to make these needed improvements if people were allowed to walk over the grass, especially when it is just starting its growth.

Henceforth you will be expected to use the walks leading to the court house and not the grass.

To Incorporate.

The Maryville Advertising company, or Maco, is going to incorporate. Their capital stock will be $12,000, and the stockholders will be W. H. Gilbert, Loyd Miles, Ed Brewer and J. H. Fox. Mr. Gilbert will be the manager of the new company and the others are employed there.

Mrs. Clara Winters of St. Joseph, who has been substitute nurse in the case of Mrs. D. L. Denning, went home Tuesday evening. Mrs. Denning does not improve.

Judge and Mrs. I. K. Alderman went to St. Joseph Wednesday morning to spend the day with their son, Dale V. Alderman, and family.

TO BUILD TOLL LINE

PEOPLE'S TELEPHONE SYSTEM TALKING OF ONE.

WILL CONSIDER IT SOON

Line as Proposed is to St. Joseph—Are Wanting the Long Distance Connections.

The People's Telephone Union of this city is talking about building a toll line from Maryville to St. Joseph, and will take up the proposition soon. They are to get estimates of the cost of building such a line and also as to the connections that can be made at St. Joseph with the South St. Joseph stock yards, and also with the Bell company. These figures will be submitted at a meeting of the company that will be held within the near future.

The board of directors of the company were in session this morning and conferred with A. E. Poteet, a representative of the Missouri-Kansas Telephone company as to long distance connection. They were informed to make such arrangements for toll line connections with the local manager of the Hanamo, but for some reason or other the People's system don't seem disposed to take the matter up here.

Long distance connections have been much needed by the People's system, and it now seems that they will be had before long.

Mrs. Julius Klaas of Clyde Figures She Is Doing Better With Her Chickens Than Mr. Klaas With Stock.

The other day a crowd of men friends of Julius Klaas, living near Clyde, were at his house talking over their cattle, hogs and horse business, what they are making on them. They talked of their investments, what it cost to feed and raise them to maturity, and what per cent they made on their investments.

Mrs. Klaas sat in the next room and heard their conversation, and as they did not say anything about what women were doing with them, she set to work figuring out how much she made from her chickens on the same basis the men figured. This is the way she did it:

"I have 250 Brown Leghorn hens that if sold on the market would not have a value to exceed 50 cents per head, or $125 for the bunch.

"In January last I gathered 1,278 eggs from them and sold eggs to the amount of $20.02. In February I gathered 1,764 and sold $35.21 worth. In March I gathered 4,080 and sold $55.96 worth. This made a total of 7,122 eggs for the three months, and bringing me $111.19.

"I keep strict account of all I gather, and the amount I realize from what I sell. I place no value on what we use and they are not included in the sales.

"Besides, I set three hens and an incubator, which would make a total nearly to the value of my chickens.

"The rest of the year my egg sales will be all profit, as I have sold the value of my chickens in three months and still have the capital stock to go on.

"Would like to see some of the men do that with their stock. You would be surprised to know that the eggs will average 31 ounces to the dozen. I attribute this to the feeding and breeding up of the hens, as they are excellent layers and lay extra large eggs."

The Roach-Hiles Wedding.

All Pickering witnessed a wedding at the Methodist Episcopal church of that place Tuesday evening that would have done credit as a city church event. The bride, Miss Golda Roach, had always attended the little church at Pickering, and since young girlhood had been a teacher in the Sunday School, a worker in the Epworth League, and had given the best of herself in every way she could for the good of the entire community, and her work as teacher in the Elm Grove school has been recognized by all in the district. And when it became known that she was to be married, in response to the wish of many friends she consented to a church wedding. Two hundred invitations were issued, every household in Pickering bidden, and her marriage was solemnized in the presence of those whom she had known and loved since childhood.

The church was very appropriately decorated for the Easter wedding. Pedestals with pots of Easter lilies were placed along the aisles, and the lights of the chandeliers were shaded in pink and white, the bridal colors. The arch way, under which the bridal couple took the vows, was made of fern leaves, smilax, and a dozen dozen pink and white roses. Back of the arch was a bank of ferns and other greenery. The altar was made of Easter lilies and on either side stood gorgeous pink lamps. The white satin pillow on which the bride and groom knelt was filled with their love letters and they will be used to kindle the first fire they will build in their home.

A program of wedding music was given as the guests waited for the bridal party. Mrs. Lester Jones, of St. Joseph, a sister of the bride sang "Love is Triumphant." She wore a gown of white silk elaborately trimmed in pink rosebuds. Miss Beulah Everhart, in pink chiffon and carrying pink and white carnations, sang "I Love You Dearly," by Carrie Jacobs-Bond. Rev. Gilbert S. Cox, pastor of the First M. E. Church, of Maryville, sang "A May Morning," by Denza. All the accompaniments were played by Mrs. Walter Johnson.

The opening strains of Lohengrin's bridal chorus, sung by Mrs. J. Stanton Garten, Miss Beulah Everhart, Howard Wray and Andrew King, announced the approach of the wedding party.

The ushers who seated the guests, Messrs. Roy Wolfers, Roland Wray, Marvin Hall and Walter Johnson, preceded by the ushers for the bridal party, Mr. Frank Simerly, of Rosendale and Prof. W. M. Oakerson, of Maryville, stretched a ribbon aisle from the door to the altar.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Roy Wolfers, followed, wearing the gown she wore as a bride three years ago, white satin draped in white lace and held with pearl fastenings. She wore a rope of pearls in her hair and carried a shower boquet of pink and white sweet peas and swansonia..

The maids of honor, Miss Jessye Clayton and Miss Minnie Everhart, were gowned in pink.

The little flower girl, Gertrude Wray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Wray, was prettily dressed in white and pink embroidery.

Little Pauline Swinford, all in white, carried the groom's ring in the heart of a pink rose, and Donald Roach, nephew of the bride, in white linen suit, carried the bride's ring in an Easter lily.

Then came the bride leaning on the arm of her father, beautiful in her bridal robes. They were met at the altar by the bridegroom, Mr. Mark Hiles of Burlington Junction, and his brother, Mr. Fred Hiles, who was his best man, and the officiating minister, Rev. Lester M. Jones, a brother-in-law of the bride, pastor of Grace Methodist church of St. Joseph. After Mr. Roach had given his daughter to the groom the double ring ceremony proceeded, Rev. Jones being assisted by Rev. J. A. Stillman, pastor of the Pickering M. E. church.

The bride's gown was white brocaded silk crepe, with long train, over white satin messaline. The low neck was edged with pearls and the corsage bouquet was of orange blossoms. The trimmings were silk Venice lace in VanDyke points. Her bridal veil of tulle completely enveloped her and was held by a band of brilliants and knots of orange blossoms. These flowers were the gift of a friend, Mrs. Charles Patrick of Los Angeles, Cal., a bride of three years ago.

During the ceremony Mrs. Johnson softly played "To a Wild Rose." After the ceremony the bridal party and their out-of-town guests went in cars to the home of the bride's father at Maple Place, three miles distant, where luncheon was served. The relatives from out of town were Rev. and Mrs. Lester M. Jones of St. Joseph, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Simerly of Rosendale, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Dixon of Moline, Kan.; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Roach and family of Bedison, and Mrs. Mary Hiles of Burlington Junction.

Among the gifts the bride received was a red cedar chest for her trousseau, with copper bands and copper plate for her name and date of her wedding. According to promise, she wore a four-leafed clover in her shoe, that was diligently searched for by a little boy in the Elm Grove school, Frank Baker.

Mr. and Mrs. Hiles are being given a reception Wednesday by the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Mary Hiles of Burlington Junction, one hundred guests being present to welcome them home.

ROADS PAY FOR THEMSELVES.

Value of Farms Bordering on Improved Highways Much Increased.

The direct effect that changing bad roads into good roads has upon land value and the general economic welfare of a community is shown in several concrete illustrations gathered by the United States department of agriculture. The department has just issued a statement on the subject, based on a mass of information gathered by the office of public roads, which is making a special study of the economic effect of road improvement in the country. According to data gathered, where good roads replace bad ones, the value of farm lands bordering on the roads increase to such an extent that the cost of road improvement is equalized, if not exceeded. Then general land values, as well as farm values, show marked advances following the improvement of roads.

As the roads in no way affect the soil fertility or quality of the farm, advances are due essentially to the decrease in the cost of handling produce to markets or shipping points. Farms are now regarded as plants for the business of farming, and any reduction in their profits through unnecessarily heavy costs for hauling on bad roads naturally reduces their capitalization into values. With reduced costs for hauling, profits are increased; with the result that the farm plant shows satisfactory earnings on a higher capital value.

The automobile also has begun to be an important factor in increasing rural values, where good roads are introduced.

HOW TO KEEP ACTIVE

When Old Age Overtakes Us.

Mrs. John Widmayer of Jackson, Mich., says: "Although 69 years of age, and, naturally, because of my advanced age in an enfeebled condition, I can truthfully say that Vinol has done wonders to keep me as active as I am. It is the best medicine to create strength that I ever saw. This spring I was very much run down and worn out, but I took Vinol and soon felt stronger and able to work about the house. I can recommend Vinol as a very invigorating tonic."

Should the system get run down—digestive organs weak—the blood thin and sluggish—take Vinol, which is a delicious combination of the medicinal, body building properties of cods' livers, with the useless grease eliminated and tonic iron added. We regard Vinol as one of the greatest body builders and strength creators in the world for aged people.

We wish every feeble old person in this vicinity would try Vinol on our agreement to return their money if it fails to give satisfaction. Orear-Henry Drug Co., Maryville, Mo.—Advertisement.

USES OF FOREST LANDS.

National Forests Are Put to Almost Every Conceivable Use.

Almost every conceivable use to which land may be put is represented in the permits reported by the forest service for special projects on the national forests. Some of the uses shown range, alphabetically, from apiary through brick yard, cannery, cemetery, church, cranberry marsh, fox ranch, marine railway, rifle range and turpentine still, to wharf and whaling station.

There are 15,000 permits in force for such special uses, which are distributed geographically from Alaska to the Mexican line and east to Florida. This figure does not include any of the 27,000 permits in force for grazing cattle and sheep on the forest; nor the 6,000 transactions for the sale of timber, and the more than 38,000 permits issued last year for the free use of timber by settlers, miners and others in developing their homesteads and claims; nor the nearly 300 permits for water power development.

California led all the national forest states in the number of these special use permits, followed by Arizona, Colorado, Montana and New Mexico in the order named. The largest single class of permits was for special pastures or corrals, to be used for lambing grounds, shearing pens and the like. Next came right of way for conduits, ditches and flumes, practically all of these being free. Various agricultural permits come third, telephone lines fourth with more than a thousand permits for 6,500 miles of line, and drift fences for the control of grazing animals, fifth. In both of these classes, too, practically all of the permits are free. Reservoirs for which more than 600 free permits were issued for the occupation of more than 100,000 acres comes sixth. The rest of the uses are not classified, though there are a large number of apiaries, camps, summer hotels and schools. The use of the government's lands for schools is given free; for hotels a charge is made.

The principle which governs the charge is based, according to the forest service, on whether or not the use of the land is sought by the permittee for a commercial purpose. If it is the intent of the user to make money from a resource which belongs to the whole people, the service holds that he should give a reasonable return for that use. If, on the other hand, farmers want to use government land for their own telephone lines, irrigation works and schools, the government gives them that use without cost.

HAVE PRETTY HAIR

Thick, Soft, Fluffy, and No Dandruff—Use Parisian Sage.

If your hair is losing its natural color, coming out and splitting, or lacks that enviable softness, gloss and beauty, do not despair—pretty hair is largely a matter of care. If it is too thin to make it grow. If it is harsh and brittle soften it up—lubricate it. If you have dandruff it is because the scalp is too dry and flakes off. Freshen up the scalp with Parisian Sage—all dandruff disappears, falling hair and itching head cease, your hair is doubly beautiful.

Parisian Sage, sold by T. J. Parle and at all drug counters, is just what you need—a large bottle costs but 50 cents. It surely makes the hair lustrous and seem twice as abundant. You cannot be disappointed in Parisian Sage.

The Ladies of St. Patrick's church will hold a market at the Parle drug store, Saturday, April 18.

YOUR CHILD'S SIGHT

Should be a most important consideration. Many children are handicapped in school or subjected to petty nervous or physical ills by the effects of imperfect vision.

An examination of the eyes of 100,000 school children in New York City showed that nearly 30 per cent needed glasses. In Boston it was more than 20 per cent, and most of them were down on the books as "stupid," "stubborn" or "unruly."

Wearing glasses in childhood often averts serious trouble later on. Have our optician examine your child's eyes. If glasses are not needed you may be sure we will tell you so frankly.

UPHELD THE WEBB BILL.

Kansas Supreme Court Says It Is a Valid Enactment.

The Kansas supreme court Monday upheld the Webb bill passed by congress which gives to the state control over liquor shipments.

Until the supreme court of the United States overturns the Webb law, Kansas will consider it a valid enactment and will take charge of all liquor shipments into the state. This is the first decision on the validity of the Webb law since it was enacted in the closing days of Taft's administration.

"If the Webb law is not valid, states with laws regulating the handling and sale of intoxicating liquors are absolutely hopeless," said Justice R. A. Burch, who wrote the Kansas decision Monday. "Without this law no state has any more control over liquor than it has over the shipments of wheat and corn. We believe that the liquor traffic can be made subject to the same regulations as obscene literature and white slavery, and that congress has sufficient power to regulate the shipments of liquor as it has to prohibit transportation of white slaves.

The Webb law simply gives to the states the control over liquor shipments into it when the shipments are to be used in violation of the law. It was argued to us that the law was not uniform in its application, but we think it is, because every state has some laws regulating the liquor traffic. Seventy per cent of the total territory of the United States is "dry." Nine states are "dry" and a majority of the people of the entire country live in "dry" territory.

"The constitution gives to congress absolute control over interstate commerce, and we believe congress can make any regulations or delegate any authority to a state regulating the shipments of any particular commodity of commerce, and under this authority congress enacted the Webb law, the most important regulation for the control of the liquor business enacted in many years."

The suit in which the court made its decision today was an appeal from Cherokee county. The Columbia Brewing company of St. Louis shipped to Corona, Kan., a car load of beer. The car was consigned to "shippers' order," a regular busines transaction. The beer was seized by the state authorities and the Columbia Brewing company asked that the beer be returned to it.

The case hung on the validity of the Webb law. It it was invalid the state had no control over the disposition of this car load of beer. The lower courts and the supreme court sustained the state's contention by upholding the validity of the law giving the state control over all interstate liquor shipments.

395,000 MORE HORSES.

Good Many Horses Yet, Despite the Automobile.

That "horseless age," so often talked about as very near and sure, fades back into the distance when the statistics of farm animals in the United States are given a little consideration. The facts presented by the latest reports of the department of agriculture do not point in that direction.

It seems that in 1913 the number of horses in this country increased by about 395,000. Their aggregate value rose more than $13,400,000. Yet in the same year the scarcity and high cost of food for live stock made it more burdensome than usual to keep horses, and the number of automobiles used by farmers was materially larger than ever before.

While there was a gain of 395,000 in horses on farms and ranches, the number of cattle, including milch cows, increased only 120,000, and there was a loss of 1,763,000 in sheep and 2,245,000 in swine. The effect of the short crops of corn and hay was clearly shown in these figures, but the demand for horses was strong enough to offset all adverse conditions.

In any survey of the prospects for draft animals mules ought not to be overlooked. Their number is more than one-fifth as great as that of the horses, and their average value is higher by about $14 a head. It is a significant fact, for this reason, that there were 63,000 more mules at the end of last year than at its beginning. —Cleveland Leader.

REBELS ROUT FEDERAL ARMY

Villa Reports Victory After Nine Days' Battle at San Pedro.

LOSS ON BOTH SIDES HEAVY.

In Neighborhood of Three Thousand Dead and Wounded—Huerta Force Said to Have Numbered Fifteen Thousand—Battle Line 20 Miles.

Juarez, April 15.—According to an official report made public here, a nine days' battle, possibly more desperate than that at Gomez Palacio and Torreon, has resulted in a victory to the rebels under General Francisco Villa.

The combined rebel force came upon the reunited federals, said in the last days of the battle to have numbered 15,000, at San Pedro, forty miles east of Torreon. Killed and wounded on both sides, is is said, will number in the neighborhood of 3,000.

The rebels claimed to have taken 700 prisoners. The federal army is said to have included the Torreon garrison, led intact out of that city in retreat by General Velasco April 2, the forces of General Maas, General Hidalgo, General de Moure and two others.

Maas, Hidalgo and De Moure were on their way to Torreon with reinforcements, but Velasco retired before their arrival. Since then until the concentration at San Pedro and environs the federal columns, their routes determined by the presence of scattered supplies of water, have been maneuvering in an endeavor to mobolize in force while rebel detachments have scurried hither and thither between Viesca, Parras and San Pedro to prevent their concentration.

When the general engagement was brought on it is reported that the battle line measured twenty miles in a semi-circle about the city.

Former Secretary Takes British View of Canal Treaty.

Washington, April 15.—Henry White, who as secretary of the American embassy at London, first suggested to Great Britain that the Clayton-Bulwer treaty be superseded by a new one that the United States might build a canal across the isthmus of Panama, told the senate canals committee that in all the negotiations of the Hay-Pauncefote treaty no suggestion ever had been made that American coastwise ships might be exempted from the payment of canal tolls.

"During all these negotiations I heard no suggestion that our coastwise ships might be exempted from tolls," said Mr. White. "It was my understanding that the words 'ships of all nations,' used by Lord Salisbury in our first conversation and cabled by me to Secretary Hay, included ships of the United States, domestic or foreign."

FIGHT DUEL AT CHICAGO

As a Result Danish Newspaper Men Face Prosecution.

Chicago, April 15.—The two Chicago newspaper men who fought a bloodless revolver duel in a grove near Riverside park, face possible prosecution. Maclay Hoyne, state's attorney, began an investigation which may result in indictments.

Christian Botker, editor and publisher of Revyen, a Danish-Norwegian paper, and Edward Peterson, the local correspondent of a Danish paper published in Minneapolis, were the principals in the duel. Peterson is said to have challenged Botker because of an article attacking him which was published in the Revyen.

The Illinois criminal code provides a sentence of from one to five years in the penitentiary and a fine of not more than $3,000 for duelling.

Ovation Given Asquith.

ATLANTIC FLEET SENT TO TAMPICO

Naval Force on Eastern Seaboard Ordered to Mexican Port.

TO BACK UP MAYO'S DEMAND

Huerta Says That Mexican Officers Who Arrested American Marines Were Acting Within Their Rights Under International Law.

Washington, April 15.—To force a salute to the Stars and Stripes from the Huerta government as an apology for the arrest of American bluejackets at Tampico President Wilson ordered practically the entire Atlantic fleet to Mexican waters.

No ultimatum has been issued—that is no specified time has been set within which the Huerta government must comply, but the naval demonstration has been ordered as a concrete evidence of the fixed determination of the United States to back up Rear Admiral Mayo's demand for a salute. General Huerta has not made satisfactory response to that demand.

"Future developments depend upon Huerta himself," was the way a high administration official close to the president summarized the situation.

Confer With Lind.

The decision to send the fleet was reached after the president and Secretary Bryan had conferred for an hour with John Lind, personal representative of President Wilson in Mexico, and after a two-hour cabinet meeting, during which dispatches from Charge O'Shaughnessy revealed that the Huerta government disputed the right of American marines to be ashore at Tampico and contended that its recent public statement of apology was ample.

Immediately after the cabinet meeting Secretary Daniels issued his order to the Atlantic fleet, and wireless messages flashed up and down the Atlantic coast to put the fleet under steam for Tampico. It will be the largest fighting force the American government has assembled for possible action since the Spanish-American war. Eleven great warships, with auxiliaries, carrying in all about 15,000 men, will comprise the force off Tampico.

Everywhere, at the White House, the state department and the navy department, the hope was expressed that there was confident prediction among administration officials that General Huerta would see the wisdom of satisfying the American demand and close the incident. Officials were careful to point out that negotiations with the Huerta government had not ended and that the way was still open to General Huerta to make amends.

The navy department sent complete instructions to Rear Admiral Badger, commander in chief of the Atlantic fleet, on board the battleship Arkansas at Hampton Roads. Rear Admiral Fiske, chief of the bureau of operations, left personally to explain to Admiral Badger the diplomatic side of the situation and the dispatches from Rear Admiral Mayo.

Pacific Fleet in Mexican Waters.

While the navy moved on the Atlantic coast, Secretary Daniels was giving his attention to the situation in the Pacific. Most of the American war craft in the Pacific ocean already are in Mexican waters.

While the navy was active, not a wheel turned in the army. Two explanations for this were advanced—the desire that the constitutionalists who are in control of northern Mexico should not misinterpret the action and the fact that the United States already has a big fighting force within striking distance of Mexico. Twelve thousand troops are at Texas City, where four army transports are at anchor and thousands of cavalry and infantry are spread along the border, where they can be moved quickly.

High administration officials do not expect critical developments, but they are prepared for any emergency. Secretary Bryan, who is ill, had intended to leave for Miami, Fla. He cancelled his reservation and announced that he would remain in Washington indefinitely.

MOB ATTACKS JAIL

Driven Away by Armed Guards From Colorado Penitentiary.

Canon City, Colo., April 15.—Masked and armed, a mob numbering about fifty, said to have been citizens of Florence, reached here in automobiles, seized Sheriff Newcomb, and with axes and ropes marched on the county jail with the avowed intention of lynching Charles Ragland, a negro under arrest, charged with the murder of Joseph Petty, a Florence merchant.

While the mob was battering at the doors of the jail, Mrs. Newcomb, the sheriff's wife, who had hidden the keys to the jail, turned in a general fire alarm and telephoned to Warden Tynan at the state prison. Members of the fire department and half a dozen prison guards, armed with sawed-off shotguns, were soon on the scene.

Several shots were fired, but so far as is known no one was wounded.

After some display of resistance the members of the mob re-entered their automobiles and drove away.

AMATEUR BANDITS COME TO GRIEF

Are Nearly Beaten to Death by Passengers.

Seattle, April 15.—Two men are dying as the result of an unsuccessful attempt by two bandits to hold up a Seattle-Tacoma interurban train at Riverton.

Clarence Trew, one of the bandits lies unconscious at a hospital in Seattle, with his skull fractured.

Charles F. Swartz of Snohomish Wash., a passenger, is at a sanitarium in Riverton, suffering from a bullet wound that just missed the heart and lodged in his lungs.

William Sears, the second bandit, is in the city jail, suffering from a dreadful beating, administered by all the passengers who could reach him. He will recover.

Sears, a young man, made a full confession to the police. They boarded the Tacoma-bound train at Seattle Near Riverton the men masked themselves with red handkerchiefs, produced pistols and undertook to rob the passengers.

They must have impressed the passengers as amateurs, for both were immediately assaulted from behind and knocked down. Trew was struck senseless with a sand drill and Sears beaten down by blows on the head Sears' pistol was discharged, wounding Swartz. The fallen bandits were beaten until they ceased to move, then bound hand and foot and delivered to deputy sheriffs for transportation to Seattle. The police say the men have no criminal record and the men themselves say they were out of work.

MISSOURI TOILERS.

Over 91,000 Men and Women Members of Some Union in This State.

The organized part of Missouri's toilers in 1913 amounted to 91,898 men and women, each a member of some union which is a part of either a national or international body. Every trade and manual occupation of the state is represented in this aggregation of union labor and every man or woman included in the total figures received more wages and worked less hours every day in that year than did those following the same line of work who are not members of any affiliated craft.

Organized labor of Missouri is dealt with in a tentative bulletin at the bureau of labor statistics which Commissioner John T. Fitzpatrick gave out for publicity Monday. It takes 859 locals, unions, lodges and branches to make up the Missouri membership of 91,898, of which 3,926 are women and 87,972 are men. Toiling women are not as well organized in Missouri as the men, the women's membership being only 4.4 per cent of the whole. When all of Missouri's toilers, organized and otherwise, are taken as a whole, nearly 20 per cent are women and girls.

VOLUME 4. MARYVILLE, MISSOURI, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 15, 1914. NO. 271.

K. P.'S ARE COMING

BIG MEETING IN MARYVILLE THURSDAY, APRIL 23.

MANY ARE EXPECTED

Knights of Pythias Will Be Entertained by Maryville and Stanberry Lodges—A Special Train.

An entertainment will be given the Knights of Pythias lodges of the First District association, in Maryville, Thursday, April 23, by Maryville lodge No. 84 and Stanberry lodge No. 56. Three hundred delegates are expected to attend.

The business meeting will be held in the W. O. W. hall and the banquet in the parlors of the Christian church. Grand Chancellor Joseph Crites of Nevada, Mo., will give an address at the Christian church in the afternoon. Charles Hyslop will be toastmaster at the banquet.

The entertainment committee are E. L. Andrews, P. Mergen and W. H. Crawford. A special train will run from St. Joseph to Maryville for the delegates.

The following named lodges will have representatives present: Albany No. 112, Grant City No. 120, King City No. 158, Maitland No. 183, Bolckow No. 196, Mahaska No. 204, Rock Port No. 205, Fairfax No. 208, Allendale No. 234, Grand River No. 251, Cainesville No. 272, New Hampton No. 285, Eagle No. 291, Tarkio No. 292, Platte City No. 296, Watson No. 301, Weston No. 323, Rochester No. 334, Gilman City No. 339, Ridgeway No. 345, Maryville No. 84, Darlington No. 161, Stanberry No. 56.

Many delegates from lodges in towns near St. Joseph will join the St. Joseph delegation and it is probable that the special train will carry 300 knights to the meeting. The entertaining lodges are making elaborate preparations to entertain the visitors. Grand Chancellor Joseph Crites will be one of the principal speakers, and many other grand lodge officers are expected to be present.

The St. Joseph knights will wear pennants bearing the words "St. Joseph K. of P.," and will boost for their home town. The uniform ranks and possibly members of the D. O. O. K. will join the subordinate lodges on this trip.

A. E. Martin, representative of the Burlington road, will have charge of the special train and will put forth every effort to make the trip as enjoyable as possible.

CENTRAL HIGH EXPECTS HONORS.

Twelve Representatives to Be Chosen Saturday—Rice the Most Dependable Man Again This Season.

The Central high school of St. Joseph expects to be better represented at the track meet this year than ever. Reports are that the hurdle men are showing better form than had been expected of them, notwithstanding the fact that Rice would be their most formidable man with the hurdles.

Nineteen men have been selected for the meet and from this number twelve men will be chosen next Saturday to enter the meet.

In the dashes Martin and Castle will be relied upon principally to carry the blue and white to victory. Martin has proven to be a winner in the 100-yard dash event. Last Saturday he clipped off the distance in seconds. Castle is expected to be a close second with Martin in this event.

The weight men are not expected to put up as strong competition as in former events. Johnson and Rohloff will be the main competitors with the discus. Johnson has been ruling the discus a distance around 100 feet, while Rohloff, instead of showing improvement over his last year's form, is only hurling the discus a distance closer to 95 than 100 feet, which was the mark that he stuck to last year.

The blue and white expect to carry off several points in the shotput, however. Stone, Rohloff and several possibilities, as yet dark horses, according to Coach Moyer, will be given an opportunity to show their ability, and expect to carry off the honors.

Experienced Coach for Company F.

Lieutenant Loren DeMotte has secured an experienced coach for Company F's new base ball team, and the team will be ready for a work-out soon. The coach is from Missouri state university football team.

Went to Kansas City.

Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Seleeman went to Kansas City Wednesday morning, where Mr. Selecman is taking special treatment.

SHOT PROVES FATAL.

Ralph Marshall, Tarkio Youth, Accidentally Wounded April 4, Succumbs at Ensworth.

Ralph Marshall, 19-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. William Marshall of Tarkio, Mo., who accidentally shot himself April 4 at his home, died at 2 o'clock Tuesday morning at Ensworth hospital.

The youth was removing cartridges from a revolver when a ball was discharged and entered his left chest, perforating the stomach. The boy was taken to St. Joseph in a special Burlington train the day after the accident and taken to Ensworth hospital. Several days later the bullet was removed and the patient rallied well. But the lad was in a weak physical condition as a result of an attack of appendicitis three weeks ago, which returned yesterday and contributed to his death.

Young Marshall was a nephew of W. F. Rankin, the farmer-banker of Tarkio. His parents were with him when he died, and accompanied the body to Tarkio, where the funeral will be conducted.

The news of Ralph Marshall's death is received by Maryville friends with deep regret. While a student at the Normal a year or so ago he made his home with Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Sanders, and was a favorite with many of our young people and the Normal student body. His mother is a niece of Mrs. G. W. Turner of this city.

176 DOZEN OF EGGS.

Taken Last Sunday at the Harmony Church, East of Maryville.

The Missouri hen has been found to do a great many things in the way of meeting expenses of various kinds, but it has remained for the Harmony church, eleven miles northeast of Maryville, of which the Rev. C. R. Green is pastor, to put upon her the responsibility of paying the minister's salary and all the expenses of the church and never miss the money.

The project followed Sunday's egg collection at the Harmony church, when the worshipers brought the Saturday product of their hens to church instead of the usual dimes and quarters. One hundred and sixty-eight dozen eggs went into the contribution boxes, or $25 worth, figuring the value at 16 cents a dozen, the present price here.

This makes the value of the eggs of the community $9,000 a year, and there is a move on foot to market these eggs, guaranteed, as a community, claiming the 3 to 5 cents a dozen extra that is paid for such eggs as compared with the uncertainties of the ordinary product. The difference will pay the preacher, keep the church in repair, buy special music and coal, and keep the church's light plant running. The women of the community have agreed to undertake the plan, and they will organize into an egg shipping company for that purpose.

The largest number of eggs brought to the Easter collection was contributed by John Dawson, whose hens laid 176 eggs Saturday.

KEEP OFF THE GRASS.

Signs Are Up in the Lawn Around the Court House Square—Are to Be Strictly Enforced.

Judge John Thornhill ordered signs put up around the court house square this morning bearing the inscription "Keep Off the Grass," and this rule is to be strictly enforced.

There has been a great deal of money spent in improving the lawn and beautifying its appearance, and they wish to keep it that way.

Men are busy today in grading the terrace around the square and planting the sod, and when completed it will present a very attractive appearance.

It would be useless to make these needed improvements if people were allowed to walk over the grass, especially when it is just starting its growth.

Henceforth you will be expected to use the walks leading to the court house and not the grass.

To Incorporate.

The Maryville Advertising company, or Maco, is going to incorporate. Their capital stock will be $12,000, and the stockholders will be W. H. Gilbert, Loyd Miles, Ed Brewer and J. H. Fox. Mr. Gilbert will be the manager of the new company and the others are employed there.

Mrs. Clara Winters of St. Joseph, who has been substitute nurse in the case of Mrs. D. L. Denning, went home Tuesday evening. Mrs. Denning does not improve.

Judge and Mrs. I. K. Alderman went to St. Joseph Wednesday morning to spend the day with their son, Dale V. Alderman, and family.

TO BUILD TOLL LINE

PEOPLE'S TELEPHONE SYSTEM TALKING OF ONE.

WILL CONSIDER IT SOON

Line as Proposed is to St. Joseph—Are Wanting the Long Distance Connections.

The People's Telephone Union of this city is talking about building a toll line from Maryville to St. Joseph, and will take up the proposition soon. They are to get estimates of the cost of building such a line and also as to the connections that can be made at St. Joseph with the South St. Joseph stock yards, and also with the Bell company. These figures will be submitted at a meeting of the company that will be held within the near future.

The board of directors of the company were in session this morning and conferred with A. E. Poteet, a representative of the Missouri-Kansas Telephone company as to long distance connection. They were informed to make such arrangements for toll line connections with the local manager of the Hanamo, but for some reason or other the People's system don't seem disposed to take the matter up here.

Long distance connections have been much needed by the People's system, and it now seems that they will be had before long.

Mrs. Julius Klaas of Clyde Figures She is Doing Better With Her Chickens Than Mr. Klaas With Stock.

The other day a crowd of men friends of Julius Klaas, living near Clyde, were at his house talking over their cattle, hogs and horse business, what they are making on them. They talked of their investments, what it cost to feed and raise them to maturity, and what per cent they made on their investments.

Mrs. Klaas sat in the next room and heard their conversation, and as they did not say anything about what women were doing with them, she set to work figuring out how much she made from her chickens on the same basis the men figured. This is the way she did it:

"I have 250 Brown Leghorn hens that if sold on the market would not have a value to exceed 50 cents per head, or $125 for the bunch.

"In January last I gathered 1,278 eggs from them and sold eggs to the amount of $20.02. In February I gathered 1,764 and sold $35.21 worth. In March I gathered 4,080 and sold $55.96 worth. This made a total of 7,122 eggs for the three months, and bringing me $111.19.

"I keep strict account of all I gather, and the amount I realize from what I sell. I place no value on what we use and they are not included in the sales.

"Besides, I set three hens and an incubator, which would make a total nearly to the value of my chickens.

"The rest of the year my egg sales will be all profit, as I have sold the value of my chickens in three months and still have the capital stock to go on.

"Would like to see some of the men do that with their stock. You would be surprised to know that the eggs will average 31 ounces to the dozen. I attribute this to the feeding and breeding up of the hens, as they are excellent layers and lay extra large eggs."

The Roach-Hiles Wedding.

All Pickering witnessed a wedding at the Methodist Episcopal church of that place Tuesday evening that would have done credit as a city church event. The bride, Miss Golda Roach, had always attended the little church at Pickering, and since young girlhood had been a teacher in the Sunday School, a worker in the Epworth League, and had given the best of herself in every way she could for the good of the entire community, and her work as teacher in the Elm Grove school has been recognized by all in the district. And when it became known that she was to be married, in response to the wish of many friends she consented to a church wedding. Two hundred invitations were issued, every household in Pickering bidden, and her marriage was solemnized in the presence of those whom she had known and loved since childhood.

The church was very appropriately decorated for the Easter wedding. Pedestals with pots of Easter lilies were placed along the aisles, and the lights of the chandeliers were shaded in pink and white, the bridal colors. The arch way, under which the bridal couple took the vows, was made of fern leaves, smilax, and a dozen dozen pink and white roses. Back of the arch was a bank of ferns and other greenery. The altar was made of Easter lilies and on either side stood gorgeous pink lamps. The white satin pillow on which the bride and groom knelt was filled with their love letters and they will be used to kindle the first fire they will build in their home.

A program of wedding music was given as the guests waited for the bridal party. Mrs. Lester Jones, of St. Joseph, a sister of the bride sang "Love is Triumphant." She wore a gown of white silk elaborately trimmed in pink rosebuds. Miss Beulah Everhart, in pink chiffon and carrying pink and white carnations, sang "I Love You Dearly," by Carrie Jacobs-Bond. Rev. Gilbert S. Cox, pastor of the First M. E. Church, of Maryville, sang "A May Morning," by Denza. All the accompaniments were played by Mrs. Walter Johnson.

The opening strains of Lohengrin's bridal chorus, sung by Mrs. J. Stanton Garten, Miss Beulah Everhart, Howard Wray and Andrew King, announced the approach of the wedding party.

The ushers who seated the guests, Messrs. Roy Wolfers, Roland Wray, Marvin Hall and Walter Johnson, preceded by the ushers for the bridal party, Mr. Frank Simerly, of Rosendale and Prof. W. M. Oakerson, of Maryville, stretched a ribbon aisle from the door to the altar.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Roy Wolfers, followed, wearing the gown she wore as a bride three years ago, white satin draped in white lace and held with pearl fastenings. She wore a rope of pearls in her hair and carried a shower boquet of pink and white sweet peas and swansonia..

The maids of honor, Miss Jessye Clayton and Miss Minnie Everhart, were gowned in pink.

The little flower girl, Gertrude Wray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Wray, was prettily dressed in white and pink embroidery.

Little Pauline Swinford, all in white, carried the groom's ring in the heart of a pink rose, and Donald Roach, nephew of the bride, in white linen suit, carried the bride's ring in an Easter lily.

Then came the bride leaning on the arm of her father, beautiful in her bridal robes. They were met at the altar by the bridegroom, Mr. Mark Hiles of Burlington Junction, and his brother, Mr. Fred Hiles, who was his best man, and the officiating minister, Rev. Lester M. Jones, a brother-in-law of the bride, pastor of Grace Methodist church of St. Joseph. After Mr. Roach had given his daughter to the groom the double ring ceremony proceeded, Rev. Jones being assisted by Rev. J. A. Stillman, pastor of the Pickering M. E. church.

The bride's gown was white brocaded silk crepe, with long train, over white satin messaline. The low neck was edged with pearls and the corsage bouquet was of orange blossoms. The trimmings were silk Venice lace in VanDyke points. Her bridal veil of tulle completely enveloped her and was held by a band of brilliants and knots of orange blossoms. These flowers were the gift of a friend, Mrs. Charles Patrick of Los Angeles, Cal., a bride of three years ago.

During the ceremony Mrs. Johnson softly played "To a Wild Rose." After the ceremony the bridal party and their out-of-town guests went in cars to the home of the bride's father at Maple Place, three miles distant, where luncheon was served. The relatives from out of town were Rev. and Mrs. Lester M. Jones of St. Joseph, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Simerly of Rosendale, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Dixon of Moline, Kan.; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Roach and family of Bedison, and Mrs. Mary Hiles of Burlington Junction.

Among the gifts the bride received was a red cedar chest for her trousseau, with copper bands and copper plate for her name and date of her wedding. According to promise, she wore a four-leafed clover in her shoe, that was diligently searched for by a little boy in the Elm Grove school, Frank Baker.

Mr. and Mrs. Hiles are being given a reception Wednesday by the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Mary Hiles of Burlington Junction, one hundred guests being present to welcome them home.

ROADS PAY FOR THEMSELVES.

Value of Farms Bordering on Improved Highways Much Increased.

The direct effect that changing bad roads into good roads has upon land value and the general economic welfare of a community is shown in several concrete illustrations gathered by the United States department of agriculture. The department has just issued a statement on the subject, based on a mass of information gathered by the office of public roads, which is making a special study of the economic effect of road improvement in the country. According to data gathered, where good roads replace bad ones, the value of farm lands bordering on the roads increase to such an extent that the cost of road improvement is equalized, if not exceeded. Then general land values, as well as farm values, show marked advances following the improvement of roads.

As the roads in no way affect the soil fertility or quality of the farm, advances are due essentially to the decrease in the cost of handling produce to markets or shipping points. Farms are now regarded as plants for the business of farming, and any reduction in their profits through unnecessarily heavy costs for hauling on bad roads naturally reduces their capitalization into values. With reduced costs for hauling, profits are increased; with the result that the farm plant shows satisfactory earnings on a higher capital value.

The automobile also has begun to be an important factor in increasing rural values, where good roads are introduced.

HOW TO KEEP ACTIVE

When Old Age Overtakes Us.

Mrs. John Widmayer of Jackson, Mich., says: "Although 69 years of age, and, naturally, because of my advanced age in an enfeebled condition, I can truthfully say that Vinol has done wonders to keep me as active as I am. It is the best medicine to create strength that I ever saw. This spring I was very much run down and worn out, but I took Vinol and soon felt stronger and able to work about the house. I can recommend Vinol as a very invigorating tonic."

Should the system get run down—digestive organs weak—the blood thin and sluggish—take Vinol, which is a delicious combination of the medicinal, body building properties of cods' livers, with the useless grease eliminated and tonic iron added. We regard Vinol as one of the greatest body builders and strength creators in the world for aged people.

We wish every feeble old person in this vicinity would try Vinol on our agreement to return their money if it fails to give satisfaction. Orear-Henry Drug Co., Maryville, Mo.—Advertisement.

USES OF FOREST LANDS.

National Forests Are Put to Almost Every Conceivable Use.

Almost every conceivable use to which land may be put is represented in the permits reported by the forest service for special projects on the national forests. Some of the uses shown range, alphabetically, from apiary through brick yard, cannery, cemetery, church, cranberry marsh, fox ranch, marine railway, rifle range and turpentine still, to wharf and whaling station.

There are 15,000 permits in force for such special uses, which are distributed geographically from Alaska to the Mexican line and east to Florida. This figure does not include any of the 27,000 permits in force for grazing cattle and sheep on the forest; nor the 6,000 transactions for the sale of timber, and the more than 38,000 permits issued last year for the free use of timber by settlers, miners and others in developing their homesteads and claims; nor the nearly 300 permits for water power development.

California led all the national forest states in the number of these special use permits, followed by Arizona, Colorado, Montana and New Mexico in the order named. The largest single class of permits was for special pastures or corrals, to be used for lambing grounds, shearing pens and the like. Next came right of way for conduits, ditches and flumes, practically all of these being free. Various agricultural permits come third, telephone lines fourth with more than a thousand permits for 6,500 miles of line, and drift fences for the control of grazing animals, fifth. In both of these classes, too, practically all of the permits are free. Reservoirs for which more than 600 free permits were issued for the occupation of more than 100,000 acres comes sixth. The rest of the uses are not classified, though there are a large number of apiaries, camps, summer hotels and schools. The use of the government's lands for schools is given free; for hotels a charge is made.

The principle which governs the charge is based, according to the forest service, on whether or not the use of the land is sought by the permittee for a commercial purpose. If it is the intent of the user to make money from a resource which belongs to the whole people, the service holds that he should give a reasonable return for that use. If, on the other hand, farmers want to use government land for their own telephone lines, irrigation works and schools, the government gives them that use without cost.

Thick, Soft, Fluffy, and No Dandruff—Use Parisian Sage.

If your hair is losing its natural color, coming out and splitting, or lacks that enviable softness, gloss and beauty, do not despair—pretty hair is largely a matter of care. If it is too hin to make it grow. If it is harsh and brittle soften it up—lubricate it. If you have dandruff it is because the scalp is too dry and flakes off. Freshen up the scalp with Parisian Sage—all dandruff disappears, falling hair and itching head cease, your hair is downy beautiful.

Parisian Sage, sold by T. J. Parle and at all drug counters, is just what you need—a large bottle costs but 50 cents. It surely makes the hair lustrous and seem twice as abundant. You cannot be disappointed in Parisian Sage.

The Ladies of St. Patrick's church will hold a market at the Parle drug store, Saturday, April 18.

YOUR CHILD'S SIGHT

Should be a most important consideration. Many children are handicapped in school or subjected to petty nervous or physical ills by the effects of imperfect vision.

An examination of the eyes of 100,000 school children in New York City showed that nearly 30 per cent needed glasses. In Boston it was more than 20 per cent, and most of them were down on the books as "stupid," "stubborn" or "unruly."

Wearing glasses in childhood often averts serious trouble later on. Have our optician examine your child's eyes. If glasses are not needed you may be sure we will tell you so frankly.

UPHELD THE WEBB BILL.

Kansas Supreme Court Says It is a Valid Enactment.

The Kansas supreme court Monday upheld the Webb bill passed by congress which gives to the state control over liquor shipments.

Until the supreme court of the United States overturns the Webb law, Kansas will consider it a valid enactment and will take charge of all liquor shipments into the state. This is the first decision on the validity of the Webb law since it was enacted in the closing days of Taft's administration.

"If the Webb law is not valid, states with laws regulating the handling and sale of intoxicating liquors are absolutely hopeless," said Justice R. A. Burch, who wrote the Kansas decision Monday. "Without this law no state has any more control over liquor than it has over the shipments of wheat and corn. We believe that the liquor traffic can be made subject to the same regulations as obscene literature and white slavery, and that congress has sufficient power to regulate the shipments of liquor as it has to prohibit transportation of white slaves.

The Webb law simply gives to the states the control over liquor shipments into it when the shipments are to be used in violation of the law. It was argued to us that the law was not uniform in its application, but we think it is, because every state has some laws regulating the liquor traffic. Seventy per cent of the total territory of the United States is "dry." Nine states are "dry" and a majority of the people of the entire country live in "dry" territory.

"The constitution gives to congress absolute control over interstate commerce, and we believe congress can make any regulations or delegate any authority to a state regulating the shipments of any particular commodity of commerce, and under this authority congress enacted the Webb law, the most important regulation for the control of the liquor business enacted in many years."

The suit in which the court made its decision today was an appeal from Cherokee county. The Columbia Brewing company of St. Louis shipped to Corona, Kan., a car load of beer. The car was consigned to "shippers' order," a regular busines transaction. The beer was seized by the state authorities and the Columbia Brewing company asked that the beer be returned to it.

The case hung on the validity of the Webb law. It it was invalid the state had no control over the disposition of this car load of beer. The lower courts and the supreme court sustained the state's contention by upholding the validity of the law giving the state control over all interstate liquor shipments.

395,000 MORE HORSES.

Good Many Horses Yet, Despite the Automobile.

That "horseless age," so often talked about as very near and sure, fades back into the distance when the statistics of farm animals in the United States are given a little consideration. The facts presented by the latest reports of the department of agriculture do not point in that direction.

It seems that in 1913 the number of horses in this country increased by about 395,000. Their aggregate value rose more than $13,400,000. Yet in the same year the scarcity and high cost of food for live stock made it more burdensome than usual to keep horses, and the number of automobiles used by farmers was materially larger than ever before.

While there was a gain of 395,000 in horses on farms and ranches, the number of cattle, including milch cows, increased only 120,000, and there was a loss of 1,763,000 in sheep and 2,245,000 in swine. The effect of the short crops of corn and hay was clearly shown in these figures, but the demand for horses was strong enough to offset all adverse conditions.

In any survey of the prospects for draft animals mules ought not to be overlooked. Their number is more than one-fifth as great as that of the horses, and their average value is higher by about $14 a head. It is a significant fact, for this reason, that there were 63,000 more mules at the end of last year than at its beginning. —Cleveland Leader.

REBELS ROUT FEDERAL ARMY

Villa Reports Victory After Nine Days' Battle at San Pedro.

LOSS ON BOTH SIDES HEAVY.

In Neighborhood of Three Thousand Dead and Wounded—Huerta Force Said to Have Numbered Fifteen Thousand—Battle Line 20 Miles.

Juarez, April 15.—According to an official report made public here, a nine days' battle, possibly more desperate than that at Gomez Palacio and Torreon, has resulted in a victory to the rebels under General Francisco Villa.

The combined rebel force came upon the reunited federals, said in the last days of the battle to have numbered 15,000, at San Pedro, forty miles east of Torreon. Killed and wounded on both sides, is is said, will number in the neighborhood of 3,000.

The rebels claimed to have taken 700 prisoners. The federal army is said to have included the Torreon garrison, led intact out of that city in retreat by General Velasco April 2, the forces of General Maas, General Hidalgo, General de Moure and two others.

Maas, Hidalgo and De Moure were on their way to Torreon with reinforcements, but Velasco retired before their arrival. Since then until the concentration at San Pedro and environs the federal columns, their routes determined by the presence of scattered supplies of water, have been maneuvering in an endeavor to mobolize in force while rebel detachments have scurried hither and thither between Viesca, Parras and San Pedro to prevent their concentration.

When the general engagement was brought on it is reported that the battle line measured twenty miles in a semi-circle about the city.

Former Secretary Takes British View of Canal Treaty.

Washington, April 15.—Henry White, who as secretary of the American embassy at London, first suggested to Great Britain that the Clayton-Bulwer treaty be superseded by a new one that the United States might build a canal across the isthmus of Panama, told the senate canals committee that in all the negotiations of the Hay-Pauncefote treaty no suggestion ever had been made that American coastwise ships might be exempted from the payment of canal tolls.

"During all these negotiations I heard no suggestion that our coastwise ships might be exempted from tolls," said Mr. White. "It was my understanding that the words 'ships of all nations,' used by Lord Salisbury in our first conversation and cabled by me to Secretary Hay, included ships of the United States, domestic or foreign."

FIGHT DUEL AT CHICAGO

As a Result Danish Newspaper Men Face Prosecution.

Chicago, April 15.—The two Chicago newspaper men who fought a bloodless revolver duel in a grove near Riverside park, face possible prosecution. Maclay Hoyne, state's attorney, began an investigation which may result in indictments.

Christian Botker, editor and publisher of Revyen, a Danish-Norwegian paper, and Edward Peterson, the local correspondent of a Danish paper published in Minneapolis, were the principals in the duel. Peterson is said to have challenged Botker because of an article attacking him which was published in the Revyen.

ATLANTIC FLEET SENT TO TAMPICO

Naval Force on Eastern Seaboard Ordered to Mexican Port.

TO BACK UP MAYO'S DEMAND

Huerta Says That Mexican Officers Who Arrested American Marines Were Acting Within Their Rights Under International Law.

Washington, April 15.—To force a salute to the Stars and Stripes from the Huerta government as an apology for the arrest of American bluejackets at Tampico President Wilson ordered practically the entire Atlantic fleet to Mexican waters.

No ultimatum has been issued—that is no specified time has been set within which the Huerta government must comply, but the naval demonstration has been ordered as a concrete evidence of the fixed determination of the United States to back up Rear Admiral Mayo's demand for a salute. General Huerta has not made satisfactory response to that demand.

"Future developments depend upon Huerta himself," was the way a high administration official close to the president summarized the situation.

Confer With Lind.

The decision to send the fleet was reached after the president and Secretary Bryan had conferred for an hour with John Lind, personal representative of President Wilson in Mexico, and after a two-hour cabinet meeting, during which dispatches from Charge O'Shaughnessy revealed that the Huerta government disputed the right of American marines to be ashore at Tampico and contended that its recent public statement of apology was ample.

Immediately after the cabinet meeting Secretary Daniels issued his order to the Atlantic fleet, and wireless messages flashed up and down the Atlantic coast to put the fleet under steam for Tampico. It will be the largest fighting force the American government has assembled for possible action since the Spanish-American war. Eleven great warships, with auxiliaries, carrying in all about 15,000 men, will comprise the force off Tampico.

Everywhere, at the White House, the state department and the navy department, the hope was expressed that there was confident prediction among administration officials that General Huerta would see the wisdom of satisfying the American demand and close the incident. Officials were careful to point out that negotiations with the Huerta government had not ended and that the way was still open to General Huerta to make amends.

The navy department sent complete instructions to Rear Admiral Badger, commander in chief of the Atlantic fleet, on board the battleship Arkansas at Hampton Roads. Rear Admiral Fiske, chief of the bureau of operations, left personally to explain to Admiral Badger the diplomatic side of the situation and the dispatches from Rear Admiral Mayo.

Pacific Fleet in Mexican Waters.

While the navy moved on the Atlantic coast, Secretary Daniels was giving his attention to the situation in the Pacific. Most of the American war craft in the Pacific ocean already are in Mexican waters.

While the navy was active, not a wheel turned in the army. Two explanations for this were advanced—the desire that the constitutionalists who are in control of northern Mexico should not misinterpret the action and the fact that the United States already has a big fighting force within striking distance of Mexico. Twelve thousand troops are at Texas City, where four army transports are at anchor and thousands of cavalry and infantry are spread along the border, where they can be moved quickly.

High administration officials do not expect critical developments, but they are prepared for any emergency. Secretary Bryan, who is ill, had intended to leave for Miami, Fla. He cancelled his reservation and announced that he would remain in Washington indefinitely.

MOB ATTACKS JAIL

Driven Away by Armed Guards From Colorado Penitentiary.

Canon City, Colo., April 15.—Masked and armed, a mob numbering about fifty, said to have been citizens of Florence, reached here in automobiles, seized Sheriff Newcomb, and with axes and ropes marched on the county jail with the avowed intention of lynching Charles Ragland, a negro under arrest, charged with the murder of Joseph Petty, a Florence merchant.

While the mob was battering at the doors of the jail, Mrs. Newcomb, the sheriff's wife, who had hidden the keys to the jail, turned in a general fire alarm and telephoned to Warden Tynan at the state prison. Members of the fire department and half a dozen prison guards, armed with sawed-off shotguns, were soon on the scene.

Several shots were fired, but so far as is known no one was wounded.

After some display of resistance the members of the mob re-entered their automobiles and drove away.

AMATEUR BANDITS COME TO GRIEF

Are Nearly Beaten to Death by Passengers.

Seattle, April 15.—Two men are dying as the result of an unsuccessful attempt by two bandits to hold up a Seattle-Tacoma interurban train at Riverton.

Clarence Trew, one of the bandits lies unconscious at a hospital in Seattle, with his skull fractured.

Charles F. Swartz of Snohomish Wash., a passenger, is at a sanitarium in Riverton, suffering from a bullet wound that just missed the heart and lodged in his lungs.

William Sears, the second bandit, is in the city jail, suffering from a dreadful beating, administered by all the passengers who could reach him. He will recover.

Sears, a young man, made a full confession to the police. They boarded the Tacoma-bound train at Seattle. Near Riverton the men masked themselves with red handkerchiefs, produced pistols and undertook to rob the passengers.

They must have impressed the passengers as amateurs, for both were immediately assaulted from behind and knocked down. Trew was struck senseless with a sand drill and Sears beaten down by blows on the head. Sears' pistol was discharged, wounding Swartz. The fallen bandits were beaten until they ceased to move, then bound hand and foot and delivered to deputy sheriffs for transportation to Seattle. The police say the men have no criminal record and the men themselves say they were out of work.

Carpentier Knocks Out Mitchell.

Paris, April 15.—George S. Mitchell amateur heavyweight champion of northern England, was knocked out by the French champion, Georges Carpentier, in the first round, after one minute and thirty-five seconds' fighting.

Heir to Astor Millions Seriously Ill

New York, April 15.—Vincent Astor is seriously ill at the country place of Mr. and Mrs. Robert P. Huntington, whose daughter, Helena, he is to marry on April 30.

MISSOURI TOILERS.

Over 91,000 Men and Women Members of Some Union in This State.

The organized part of Missouri's toilers in 1913 amounted to 91,898 men and women, each a member of some union which is a part of either a national or international body. Every trade and manual occupation of the state is represented in this aggregation of union labor and every man or woman included in the total figures received more wages and worked less hours every day in that year than did those following the same line of work who are not members of any affiliated craft.

Organized labor of Missouri is dealt with in a tentative bulletin at the bureau of labor statistics which Commissioner John T. Fitzpatrick gave out for publicity Monday. It takes 859 locals, unions, lodges and branches to make up the Missouri membership of 91,898, of which 3,926 are women and 87,972 are men. Toiling women are not as well organized in Missouri as the men, the women's membership being only 4.4 per cent of the whole. When all of Missouri's toilers, organized and otherwise, are taken as a whole, nearly 20 per cent are women and girls.
